

INTERNATIONAL SECURITY FOUNDATION
SAFETY IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

What is ISF?

Founded in 2011 by the private-sector members of OSAC, the nonprofit International Security Foundation (ISF) funds OSAC's training symposia and security information exchanges for OSAC's Country and Common Interest Councils (Regional Councils and Sector-Specific Working Groups).

Why does OSAC need ISF support?

The Federal Advisory Committee Act prohibits OSAC's Country and Common Interest Councils from receiving federal funding. ISF support helps to create a stronger, more responsive OSAC by funding these important OSAC initiatives.

Who supports ISF?

Corporations, organizations, academic institutions, non-profits, NGOs and individuals may support ISF with a tax-deductible donation.

How to support ISF:

Annual ISF OSAC Appreciation Dinner Sponsorship

Held on the first night of OSAC's Annual Briefing, this event raises general funds to support OSAC's many programs. Sponsorships range from $5,000 to $50,000. Visit isf4osac.org/dinner.

Common Interest Council (CIC) Event Sponsorship

If you are a member of an OSAC Regional Council or Sector-Specific Working Group, you can sponsor your specific CIC program. Sponsorships range from $2,500 to $10,000. Visit isf4osac.org/CIC.

ISF Membership

An annual membership supports a variety of OSAC programming. Memberships range from $250 to $1,500. Visit isf4osac.org/membership.

Donations to ISF

ISF accepts outright gifts, both unrestricted (greatest need) and restricted (donor-designated). Visit isf4osac.org/donate.
